

Jeff & Janis present

Hear captivating stories and fascinating research of 100 years of musical Chicago from Emeritus Professors and performers Jeff Winter and Janis Fine.

Enjoy select gems from a wonderful variety of Chicago musicians, composers and of course some "Razzle Dazzle" from "Chicago", the musical.

You'll leave humming some of your favorites and learn the answers to some fun Chicago history such as:

- What 1922 female murder suspect inspired the Broadway musical "Chicago"?
- Which famous Chicago musician first performed on stage at age 4?
- Which famous singer broke the race barrier during Jim Crow?
- What nefarious group do we need to watch out for between Wilmette and Gary?

A perfect show for any group.

Please contact us for a performance

Here are some recent quotes for shows we have presented:

"Jeff and Janis always give an outstanding presentation sharing the background of the music."

"They were very well prepared and enthusiastic about their material. I learned a lot."

"We loved the wonderful singing and how it fit with the information. The time flew by."

Contact Jeff Winter at: jwin27@aol.com
<http://www.jeffandjanis.com>
Facebook: Jeff and Janis, or call 847.651.6592

THAT TODDLIN' TOWN

A CENTURY OF MUSICAL INSPIRATION
A Musical and Educational Program

